BREAKING NEWS!!!

Professor Muhammad Haron has joined the Parliamentary Presidency of AL JAMA-AH to free up Member of Parliament Ganief Hendricks to contest the Mayoral position in the City of Cape Town.

The AL JAMA-AH's Member of Parliament and President of the party, Hon. Ganief Hendricks will be contesting the mayoral position in the City of Cape Town Metro. The party takes great pleasure to announce that Prof. Muhammad Haron will free up Hon. Hendricks from Parliamentary duties so that he can concentrate on contesting for the mayoral position in the City.

The party's newly elected spokesperson, Advocate Shameemah Salie will be Hon. Hendricks running mate and has been designated as the party's Deputy Mayor. Attorney at law, Yusuf Dalwai will complete the trio and take up the position of Speaker.

The individuals elected by AL JAMA-AH to run the city consists of professionals who currently manage their own practices, and occupies specialized positions in the corporate world and who are actively involved in the community based organizations utilizing their expertise and skill sets to serve the communities. These individuals who will be tasked with working in the City will be drawn from the party's newly elected National Executive Committee – a team of 100 top guns.

Other party members to be added to the think tank to run the city are party stalwarts: Faried Achmat; Galil Brinkhuis; Imraan Moosa; Thapelo Amad; Asghar Khan, Sheikh Mogamad Carloo and religious leaders consisting of both Priests and Sheikh's who are aspirant candidates from the NEC.

AL JAMA-AH is a platform for all communities and thus provides a Zulu constituency and now also has several communities on board. The party believes being a platform for all communities will enhance the votes in the metro and possibly afford the party balance of power in the city.
