AL Jama-ah support calls for re-election in Western Cape

The Al Jama-ah party is considering supporting calls made by other parties to the IEC to hold a re-election in the Western Cape.

Al Jama-ah's party leader and Member of Parliament, Hon Ganief Hendricks says the party has good reason to believe that the 2021 Local Government Elections in the Western Cape did not take place under "free and fair" conditions. "The WC IEC has harmed the country's electoral democracy," says Hendricks.

Hendricks will first meet with the IEC national leadership before giving the party's full support for calls to have a re-election in the province. The party has completed the necessary procedural forms for a re-election in the Western Cape.
