Al Jama-ah condemns vigilantism on water protesters in Umzinto

The Al Jama-ah party notes with disgust the acts of vigilantism carried out in the Riverside Park area of Umzinto, KwaZulu-Natal following a peaceful protest by the community against water shedding in the region.

The gunmen injured 3 residents of Riverside Park including a teenager, woman and another adult who were rushed to hospital for treatment.

Al Jama-ah calls on the Provincial Police Commissioner and Minister of Police to act decisively against those who have attacked people who staged a peaceful protest for water.

We further wish a speedy recovery to the injured people.
