Al Jama-ah Congratulates President Ganief Hendricks on Appointment as Deputy Minister of Social Development

Al Jama-ah extends its heartfelt congratulations to President Ganief Hendricks on his recent appointment as Deputy Minister of Social Development. This significant achievement marks a pivotal moment not only for our esteemed leader but also for our party and the people of South Africa.

Secretary General Faried Achmat expressed the party's pride in President Hendricks' new role, highlighting its alignment with Al Jama-ah's longstanding commitment to effecting positive change in the lives of South Africans. "President Hendricks' appointment as Deputy Minister of Social Development resonates deeply with our party's ambition to bring about tangible improvements and uphold social justice for all citizens," said Achmat.

Hendricks has been a stalwart advocate for social welfare and community empowerment throughout his tenure, demonstrating unwavering dedication to the principles of compassion, equity, and progress. His leadership has been instrumental in shaping Al Jama-ah's vision of a more inclusive and prosperous South Africa.

As Deputy Minister of Social Development, Hendricks will undoubtedly continue to champion policies that enhance social welfare, uplift vulnerable communities, and promote sustainable development across the nation. His extensive experience and unwavering commitment make him uniquely qualified to tackle the challenges ahead and drive meaningful change.

Al Jama-ah pledges its full support to its leader in his new role and looks forward to working closely with him to achieve our shared goals of a just and more equitable society.
